DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election of Group I with a species (polymer 1) in the reply filed on 5/6/05 and 4/18/05 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-5, 7-9 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by EP 1138746 of record on 1449.

The reference discloses polymeric fluorescent and polymer light emitting device comprises in the main chain one or more repeating units of formula (1) (see Abstract) wherein 0.05-10 mole% of all repeating units in the polymeric fluorescent substance have branching polymeric chains (see page 7, lines 30-34).

Note that the composition has been disclosed on page 7, including the chemical formulae on pages 8-15 to form a branching polymeric chain (see page 19, line 13) or too many branches---(see page 20, line 14) in the light emitting layer composition (see page 23, lines 15 et seq.)

At least reactants under process conditions have been disclosed in Example 3 and in claims 1 and 9.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-9 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gamerith et al of record on 1449.

The reference discloses polyfluorenes such as poly(9,9-dialkyl fluorene) with two hexahydrofarnesyl side branches, a slight branched with tetrabromospiro(fluorene-9,9'-fluorene) as branch and the same polyfluorene with triphenylamine endcappers (see Abstract0 or without endcapper (PF A 193) in Figure 1 (a) to form fluorene triarylamine copolymers [14].

Note that the reference clearly discloses the PF A193 as triarylamine without endcapper, as the claimed species (1).

Note also that the polyphenylene based materials as conjugated polymers can be used as blue light emitting materials in polymer light emitting devices (see Introduction).

Thus, each and every limitation of the claims is met by the references.
